Nominations Open for the 2007 Greater Richmond Business Hall of Fame

Richmond, VA – Nominations are open for the 18th Annual Junior Achievement Greater Richmond Business Hall of Fame to be held May 17, 2007. Since 1988, the event recognizes the most esteemed leaders of the Greater Richmond free enterprise system. To be considered as a Greater Richmond Business Hall of Fame Laureate, an individual's record of business achievement must demonstrate:

- Chairman, CEO, President, Founder, Owner, Principal or a partner of a Richmond area business
- Recognized for his or her significant business achievements
- Known for innovations pertaining to his or her industry
- Displays characteristics of sustained business excellence and integrity
- Demonstrates inspiring business and community leadership
- Is an exemplary business and civic role model
- Has a long record of professional and civic achievements that are a direct result of their use of the free enterprise system to improve the quality of the lives of those in their company and community
- In addition, nominees must serve as a role model for those who follow. Stated more simply, Greater Richmond Business Hall of Fame Laureates are individuals whose work has moved the greater metropolitan Richmond area in a better, stronger direction.

Laureates will be selected from three broad categories:

- Historical Laureates (deceased)
- Contemporary/Active Laureates (individuals still engaged in the day-to-day activities of their businesses)
- Contemporary/Retired Laureates (individuals who have retired from active business involvement).

Deadline for nominations is November 20, 2006. Nominations can be mailed to: Greater Richmond Business Hall of Fame c/o Junior Achievement, 4600 Cox Road, Ste. 107, Glen Allen, VA 23060, (804-217-8855).

All proceeds from the Hall of Fame support Junior Achievement programs that are taught to over 17,000 students throughout the greater Richmond area from kindergarten through 12th grade.
